CAREFUL NOW!

During December and January the United States government is to pay back to the people of this country millions of dollars in redemption of war saving stamps bought five years ago. Several thousand dollars of the general sum will come into this vicinity.

These millions represent a considerable part of the savings of our people, and as savings should be particularly guarded. The money paid by the government should be immediately reinvested where it will start working again to bring in dividends to the investor. And, for the very reason that most of the holders of war savings stamps will reinvest their money in some other dividend paying proposition, their money is in danger.

For, already, dishonest promoters are at work getting ready to harvest their crop of suckers from among those to whom the government is making payments. All sorts of fake stocks and bonds, promising big returns, will soon flood the market, and worthless, although pretty paper will be foisted upon an unsuspecting public.

So, be careful how you reinvest your money. Don't expect to find a safe investment that will pay you extra large interest returns, for you can't get something for nothing in this old world, you know. Better take less interest and keep your capital than take promises of getting rich quick and lose your all. If you are in doubt about the value of making an investment ask any banker and take his advice. For we are sure he will advise you right.

The Legend of Christmas

(©, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.)

THEY say that on that first, strange Christmas Night,
So dazzling was the radiance of the Light,
That sun and moon and stars leaped in the sky,
And danced in ecstasy.
The silly sheep fled, scampering in dismay,
Yet stayed their foolish fleeing, so they say,
To kneel in adoration and in prayer.
And peace was everywhere.

The crooked stump stood straight,
The legend tells,
And held forth leafy arms; and tiny bells,
Wee, starry blossoms, gemmed the living green.
No withered thing was seen.
The lion and the lamb watched side by side,
Sharing the wonders of that Christmastide,
The air was rich with perfume, sweet with song.
The cock crowed all night long.

And every Christmas Eve, so runs the tale,
In field and forest, mountain-top and vale,
The blessed fairies guard, that over all
No evil may befall.
They say that angels hover all the night,
Close to the listening earth; and when the light
Of Christmas morning heralds the glad Day,
They fold their wings and pray.

You never saw these wonders? No, nor I!
Only the pure and childlike may describe
The tiny fairies fitting in the grass,
And speak them as they pass.
Guiltless of guile, from greed and envy free—
Oh! very like the Christ-Child must you be,
To hear a blessed angel when he sings,
Or feel the brush of wings.
—Vilda Sauvage Owens in New York Times.

Tournament of Roses Pageant At Pasadena Jan. 1

Entries for the Tournament of Roses pageant made so far outnumber entries for previous years in a ratio of about two to one, indicating the largest and most gorgeous parade in the 35 years of the Tournament has been held. Outstanding entries are particularly notable, several cities which have not heretofore participated having announced their intention to have floats in the pageant.

One of the most notable entries promised is to come from Hollywood, the first time that community has ever had an entry. This feature will be dedicated to Carrie Jacobs Bond, the famous composer, and will be typical of the music, art and cultural aspect of Hollywood.

There will also be entries from the Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions, all three being in the pageant at the same time for the first time in history.

The parade will move over the usual and well established route in spite of the fact that the new Tournament of Roses stadium is in the opposite part of Pasadena from Tournament Park, where the afternoon program has formerly been given. This was decided because of a desire to divide the areas of congestion, the parade terminating in a different part of the city from that where thousands of automobiles would be enroute for the East and West football game.

Prizes for parade entries are by far the most elaborate ever offered and all indications point to a record parade attendance of more than 300,000 persons, which is the highest mark ever set by the parade.

Sparkle on the Tree

Small horns of paper or tin wound with bright crepe paper and tied with sparkling tinsel, that falls in tassels from them, are among the new Christmas tree ornaments that any one can make.

If Back Hurts Flush Kidneys

Eat less meat, also take glass of Salts before breakfast occasionally.

Too much meat may form uric acid, which excites the kidneys; they become overworked; get sluggish, ache and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region; you suffer from headache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to help neutralize the acids in urine, so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus often ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active. Drug-gists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in correcting kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
